SENSATION IN HARTJE CASE; TOM MADINE MAKES CONFESSION.

Erstwhile Coachman Turns Over Letters and Makes Damaging Statements to Paper Manufacturer.

CASE WILL BE REOPENED.

Augustus Hartje Charges His Wife With Malicious Perjury and Claims to Have Evidence Which Will Undoubtedly Prove Unfaithfulness.

United Press Telegram.
PITTSBURG, Oct. 7.—In regard to his filing by his attorney of a petition with the Superior Court at Philadelphia asking that the Augustus Hartje case be opened up in order that he might introduce new evidence, Augustus Hartje today made the following statement:

"I consider this evidence we have secured to be sufficient to prove beyond the vestige of a doubt that Mrs. Hartje was intimate with Thomas Madine."

News of the filing of the petition, which was sensational in the extreme, has caused great comment here.

Tom Madine, the erstwhile coachman, who figured prominently in the famous divorce trial of Augustus Hartje against his wife, Mary Scott Hartje, has turned traitor. It is said and turned over to the libellant a complete confession of his alleged intimacy with Mrs. Hartje, together with letters written him by the respondent, said to have contained damaging statements. Madine now lives at Belfast, Ireland, where he has married and settled down. Not only has Madine turned over this evidence to Hartje but Howard Lappe, another attorney representing the case, has also wedged the confessions made him by Mrs. Hartje's sisters.

In his petition to the Superior Court Hartje accuses his wife of wilful deliberate and corrupt perjury in saying the letters submitted were not written by her to Madine, and that her testimony and that of Madine was absolutely false.

Madine has turned over to Hartje some of the damaging letters written him by Mrs. Hartje which, it is said, certain sufficient evidence to warrant the libellant securing a divorce. Many of these are missives written in the most unbecoming terms to the erstwhile coachman.

James Scott, father of Mrs. Hartje, today was calm following the publication of this morning's Standard. He said: "Right will prevail. Providence will not allow it to be otherwise. As to his latest effort I will simply say any man who will employ seven lawyers to defend a negro, is capable of doing anything."

LONDON, Oct. 7.—(Special)—Mrs. Mary Scott Hartje, who has been staying here for many weeks with her aunt, Mrs. Vandergrift, while her children are attending school, refused to say anything about the famous case. It is said she has been cautioned by her attorney against making any statements.

LONG TRIAL.

The Damage Suit of Mrs. Kuntz Against Uniontown Merchant Is Still in Progress.

UNIONTOWN, Oct. 7.—The suit of Mrs. Margaret Kuntz against F. C. Long, the Uniontown merchant, was resumed before Judge Reppert this morning. Considerable delay was encountered over arguments on various points of law. The defense is making an effort to present witnesses who will testify as to Mrs. Kuntz's character. Judge Reppert barred these Saturday, but this morning Attorney Hertzog read several decisions showing the admissibility of such testimony. Judge Reppert will render his decision on this point this afternoon.

P. P. Long took the stand for the defense this morning and related in detail the facts that have already been given. He admitted offering to settle the suit for $60, but denied doing anything dishonest in this whole transaction. He was asked, "Did you say that the coat and other articles had been taken by Mrs. Kuntz, and $60 was a fair basis of settlement?" Mrs. Kuntz was faced, Long said, with a list of articles valued at $108 which she is alleged to have purloined from the store.

Long was on the stand when court adjourned at noon.

NIGHT SCHOOL.

OF THE Y.M.C.A.

Meeting at Association Home Will Be Held This Evening.

A POTENT FACTOR FOR GOOD.

Gathering This Evening for the Purpose of Enrollment of Larger Classes at Which Teachers and Officers of Association Will Be Present.

A meeting of great importance is to be held at the Y. M. C. A. tonight at 8 o'clock to which every man and boy in this vicinity who wishes a better preparation to do the work of life is cordially invited.

The educational feature of the Y. M. C. A. has become one of its most potent factors for good. No night school is provided in Connellsville or vicinity for the boys who are compelled to leave school too early. Most of them are main supports of widowed mothers and others must help in the support of the family. Then many men find not the means to leave their trades or professions and go away to school, and therefore will welcome a chance to get the great blessing of night classes in the Association.

One good feature for these men and boys is the fact that all the teachers are expert in their lines and are now engaged in practical things and will give them just what they need. Another interesting feature is the fact that only enough is charged by way of tuition to pay the salaries of the teachers. The Association provides the rooms, and the administration of the school is absolutely free to all.

The meeting tonight is a social gathering at which all the classes already enrolled and all who wish to join any of the classes, the educational and membership committees, the officers and officers of the Association are expected to be present.

The actual recitations will be held next week. Lessons will be assigned and text books and other materials ordered for the students' benefit.

Col. James M. Reid, a member of the Governor's staff, returned last night from Washington, where he attended the Pennsylvania Day exercises at the Exposition.

A prominent merchant did a suggestion recently by giving a boy of 14 years of age, who is in his employ in the store, a full membership and parent.

NO PROSECUTIONS.

Had Been Made by Sabbatharians Up to Noon, But May Come This Afternoon.

Up to noon today there were apparently no prosecutions for violations of the Sunday selling law. Both Sabatharians and W. P. Clark this morning said that no informations had been made public by them. There is evidently a lull in business.

So far there has been nothing done by the Sabbath Observance Association of Connellsville, New Haven and South Connellsville. It was stated several days ago by Rev. J. J. Hueton, President of the organization, that he would take steps within a short time to see that the law was properly enforced.

The offenders have probably determined to find out whether Rev. Hueton will prosecute. There is no question but that the Sabbatharians will prosecute. Since the Sunday closing movement has been inaugurated several weeks ago, all sorts of trade and traffic have been held by the men kept open, but all failed in their purpose. The Sabbatharians failed to nibble at the crafts held bait for them.

The unfortunate man arrived in the slum neighborhood from St. Louis on Saturday. He was to have commenced work this morning at the plant of the A. Overholts Company at Broadford under Foreman J. P. Kelly. It is believed that Postal attempted to cross the P. & L. E. bridge Saturday night and fell off.

Postal's body was found by an Italian, Morgan. Morgan in turn told Deputy Coroner J. E. Sims, to whom the body was taken.

Several employees at Broadford identified the body. Foreman Kelly is making every effort to locate Postal.

Postal was a member of the Structural Iron Workers' Union of St. Louis and from this organization it is expected his home may be learned.

REFORMED SYNOD.

Of the Pittsburg District to Convene in Pittsburgh.

The thirty-eighth annual meeting of the Pittsburg Synod of the Reformed church will convene in Cleveland on Wednesday and continue until Monday. The sessions will be held in the Second Reformed church, North Main street, and in all there will be over 200 persons attending the various sessions. Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock the Webster Memorial services take place.

Altar service will be conducted by Rev. A. J. Holler of the local Trinity Reformed church and J. F. Snyder.

Col. James M. Reid, a member of the Governor's staff, returned last night from Washington, where he attended the Pennsylvania Day exercises at the Exposition.

In speaking of his trip Col. Reid says he was pleased with the Exposition as a whole, but the lack of push and hustle makes itself decidedly apparent.

John Postal's Body Discovered Yesterday Morning in Possum Run.

DEATH DUE TO DROWNING.

Supposed He Fell from P. & L. E. Bridge While Attempting to Cross Saturday Night—Efforts Being Made to Locate His People.

With his face submerged in the shallow waters of Possum Run, the body of John Postal, a structural iron worker, about 35 years of age, was found yesterday morning. Postal came to his death from drowning. No marks of violence could be found on his body.

The unfortunate man arrived in the slum neighborhood from St. Louis on Saturday. He was to have commenced work this morning at the plant of the A. Overholts Company at Broadford under Foreman J. P. OFF TO CONVENTION.

Comrade Barnhart Will Tell How Poor Houses Should Be Run.

Comrade J. J. Barnhart of Sunnyside, one of Fayette county's Poor House Directors, left this morning for Meadowville, where he will attend the annual State Convention of the Poor House Directors' Association. Comrade James J. Barnhart will tell the convention how things are run in "Old Mead."

Directors Elmer Crossland and Steve and John O. Miller of the County Home will also grace the convention with their presence.

J. G. FREED DEAD.

He Was An Old Citizen of Butkirk Township and Was Widely Known.

Joseph G. Freed, one of the most widely known retired farmers of Butkirk township, died this morning after a lingering illness at the Freed home in Meadowville. Death was due to the infirmities of age. Funeral Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment in Mt. Olivet cemetery.

Decedent was the son of late Jacob and Susan Freed and was born and reared on the farm where he died. Practically all his life was spent in Butkirk township. He had died, failing for the past three years his illness resulting from a parasitic stroke which he suffered about that time. During his illness he was able to do about up, until a few days ago. Freed was a devout member of the German Baptist church of near Mt. Pleasant. He was survived by his widow, Susan Kern of Nominville. She is survived by his widow and the following grown children: Mrs. Annie McClellan, Mrs. R. R. Grim, T. L. Freed of Moyer; George Freed of Martin, O.; and Dempsey Freed of Latrobe. Two brothers, Samuel Freed of Hannondale and John Freed of Knoxville, Ia., also survive.

In the party today are County Chairman Byrne, J. Q. Van Sweringen, P. A. Johns and D. W. Henderson. Comrade Barnhart has gone to Meadowville for a few days to attend the convention of Poor Directors and he will be missed. Judge J. J. Work will come out this afternoon. Thursday will remain here over night, likely making a "hunting trip" this afternoon. The members of the party are meeting the voters informally and no meeting will be held. All members of the party are veteran campaigners and it is safe to bet that no voter in the borough will miss seeing one or the other of the party unless he takes to the woods.

State Chairman Wesley Andrews has written to Chairman Byrne for a date in Fayette county. The State Republican candidates will come to Uniontown some time the latter part of his month or the first of next. Chairman Byrne has not yet set the date. However, a stop will be made in the afternoon at Connellsville.

On October 22 the campaigners come to Connellsville. The day following will be spent in New Haven. All of the candidates on the ticket will be with the party here, and, like, a number of other Republican leaders of the county.

World's Championship Series
Arranged Between Cubs and Tigers.

FIRST TWO GAMES AT CHICAGO

Next Three at Detroit and Sixth at Chicago—Series Begins Tomorrow—Hank O'Day and John F. Sheridan Will Act as Umpires.

Chicago, Oct. 7.—Details of the world's baseball championship series between the Chicago club, winner of the National League pennant, and the Detroit team, pennant winner in the American League, were arranged at a meeting of the National Baseball commission here. The schedule of games follows:

Tuesday, Oct. 8, at Chicago.
Wednesday, Oct. 9, at Chicago.
Thursday, Oct. 10, at Detroit.

Friday, Oct. 11, at Detroit.
Saturday, Oct. 12, at Detroit.
Sunday, Oct. 13, at Chicago.

If a seventh game, it is necessary to decide the series, the city in which it is to be played will be decided by the commission. The schedule as adopted is as follows: If any of the games scheduled is postponed on account of rain or for any other cause the teams are required to play the postponed game on the first day available at the same park.

By agreement of all the clubs representing both leagues the rules already existing governing the playing of championship series were amended so that 60 per cent of the balance from the first four games played shall form a pool for the players of the two teams, 40 per cent of the amount to go to the winning and 40 per cent to the losing team.

The players eligible to play in the championship series were designated as follows:

Chicago—Brown, Chance, Durbin, Evers, Fraser, Hofman, Howard, Lundgren, Kling, Moran, McCormick, Overall, Ols, Pfeister, Reubach, Sheard, Slagle, Shute, Steinfield, Tinker, Walsh and Zimmerman.

Detroit—Archer, Cobb, Coughlin, Crawford, Donovan, Dowless, Jones, Jennings, Killian, Lowe, Muller, McIntyre, Payne, O'Leary, Roseman, Rundt, Stevens, Schaefer and Willlett.

President Pulliam of the National League selected Henry O'Day as umpire for his organization during the series. President Johnson of the American League named John F. Sheridan as his umpire. Official scorers are A. J. Flanner and F. C. Richter. The scale of prices for admission to the games was fixed at $1.50 and $2.00 for the Chicago games; $1.25 and $2.50 for Detroit. The reason for the lower prices at Chicago is the large seating capacity of the Chicago park.

The games will be called at 2:30 in Chicago and at 2 o'clock in Detroit.

DETROIT CELEBRATES

Winning of American League Pennant Causes rejoicing.

Baltimore, Oct. 7.—The downtown streets took on an electric night aspect as thousands of baseball fans, both men and women, cheered themselves hoarse in anticipation of the winning of the American league baseball championship by the Detroit club.

Huge bonfires marked the constantly changing scene of the celebration. As fast as the people went狂热地 to the point of the newest blaze some one would run in, fire alarm and the police and fire departments were kept busy until the early hours of the morning. But the police and firemen never lost patience with the mob. After a dozen unnecessary runs the patrol wagons, hose carts and engines would still drive into the crowd with officers and fire fighters all laughing in good humor with the crowd and no serious consequences of the fires were reported.

IN CHILD'S PRESENCE

Husband Kills His Wife and Himself With Revolver.

Baltimore, Oct. 7.—Albert Fidler, a milk dealer, age 45, fired five bullets into the body of his wife, Ida, killing her instantly, and then shot and killed himself.

The shooting was witnessed by the 11-year-old daughter of the couple. The child was leaning against her mother with the latter's arm about her when Fidler began firing and that she was not shot is accounted for by the fact that the pistol was held so close to Mrs. Fidler that her clothing was ignited and was still burning when neighbors attracted by the shots rushed into the house.

Pounded Dynamite Cartridge.

Buffalo, Oct. 7.—Benjamin Formato, foreman of a gang of laborers, was blasting slag at the Union furnace company's plant. While driving a 25-pound dynamite cartridge into a drilled hole he decided to hammer it in with a sledge. Formato's head was blown off. Anthony Tommillo was killed and five other men were injured.

Murderer's Wife and Himself.

Key West, Fla., Oct. 7.—Austin Griffin shot and killed his wife at the breakfast table and committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid. Mrs. Griffin had separated from her husband, who refused to leave the house, demanding half of the property. The husband demanded an understanding and she refused to converse with him.

COCHRAN HALL.

Cornerstone for it at Allegheny College, Meadville, Was Laid Last June.

Cochran Hall, a common for young men, is now in process of erection at Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa. The building will contain on the first floor a reception hall, main dining room with seats for 150, club dining room and a large room for general purposes. The second floor will be devoted to dormitory purposes and will contain suits for 40 men. The building will not only provide first-class boardings and dormitory accommodations, but will constitute a rallying center for the young men of the college.

Apart from the dining room and dormitory features of the building the club house features will appeal to the young men. The rooms provided for the Young Men's Christian Association will be almost ideal. In addition to the spacious hall to be used as assembly, reading and social room, will be an office for the secretary, a committee room and a closet room. Just off these apartments will be the two sets of bowling alleys with shuffle board, spaced adequately.

pany is thriving as never before under the fire of the government pressure," said Gen. Charles Miller, president of the Galena Signal Oil company, which was on the federal race last week. "We are 25,000 barrels behind in orders with both our plants running full. The only thing we are worrying about is how we are going to supply the trade."

Franchisees have already been se-enured to Johnstown to supply gas at 50 cents per thousand cubic feet, and it is understood contracts have been made with some of the larger industrial establishments, including the Cambria Steel Company, which will use natural gas under its open hearth furnaces.

THEATRICAL.

Plays Booked for the Colonial Theatre in Near Future.

T. H. Winnetts has arranged for an extended tour of the famous melodrama, "New York Day by Day," that will include most of the large cities from New York to the coast. From this, its sixth season, an entirely new scenario, outfit and house provided, a number of new songs and specialized arias, and one of the strongest dramatic companies the road has been brought together. The continued success of "New York Day by Day" is a proof that the great mass of playgoers love a story in real life, simply told, and a wholesome mingling of pathos and humor. The play will be seen at Connellsville at the Colonial this evening.

"Hi! Ho! the Mayor!" is a distinct musical creation. Gorgeously costumed with pretty girls, laughable situations, two score of whistling songs, Internationally famous dancing dolls, attractive scenic reproductions and a cast of recognized merit are the component parts of this musical comedy. It comes to the Colonial

A production that is one of the most complete in the history of the stage will be presented here on Tuesday evening, October 19, at the Colonial. The "Duel" is from the pen of M. Lavalan, and translated by Louis Parker. This piece calls for all special stage settings, furniture, draperies, carpets, in fact, everything that is used in the play. The scenes are all laid in France, and, therefore, some very pretty stage settings are shown. Leander Blandon, who plays the part originally played by Otto Skinner, is an actor of exceptional ability, being a Shakespearean student and scholar. In this role he is very aptly suited. Miss Catherine Robert will appear here with Mr. Blandon as

THE RICH WERE SCARED.

But People of Moderate Means Were Not Affected.

Comparatively poor people sometimes have the laugh on the very rich.

During the fury in the stock market this summer many of New York's rich were obliged to give up their cottages at Newport because their summer houses were practically wiped out by the decline stocks, but people of moderate means, who had their savings in a strong bank, were not affected to the least. That's a good point to remember. A savings account in the First National Bank of Connellsville is always worth 100 cents on the dollar, with accrued interest at 4 per cent added. Stocks may go up and stocks may go down, but a savings account in the old reliable First National is always at par.

Man Near Greensburg Takes Unusual Form of Ending His Life.

GREENSBURG, Oct. 6.—(Special.)

John Dusse, aged 40, took a horrible method to end his life Saturday evening. Just west of Bedfordville, the engineer crew of a passenger train saw a foreigner run to the railroad track and kneel down in attitude of prayer. The conductor of the train was partially awakened, but Dusse was struck. One leg was cut off, the other was mangled and was cut and bruised. He was taken on board the train and brought to the Westmoreland hospital, where he died Sunday evening.

Before he lost consciousness he told the railroad employees he had quarreled with his wife.

HUGE LADLE UPSETS

Four Contents of Molten Metal Among Workmen in Butler Car Plant.

TERRIE EXPLOSION ENSUES

Four Workers Are Killed and a Score Badly Injured—Damage to Plant Estimated at $100,000—Town Shaken by Earthquake.

Butler, Pa., Oct. 7—By the explosion of cupola No. 1 in the cast steel wheel plant of the Standard Steel Car company here last night four men were killed, 20 perhaps fatally injured and 10 received minor injuries. Nearly all the men were foreigners. The large wheel plant was totally wrecked, causing a property loss of $100,000. The dead:

Nick Dorn,
Nicholas Blotar,
John Vereck,
Unknown Man.

The injured, Joseph Rents, John J. Gill, Mike Kluta, John Sabat, K. Au, Gust Schuhura, John Wluchek, J. Wetzer, John Vaden, John Ardin, Dennis Ambroski, George Yost, John Wluchek, Michael Nowak, John McCormick, George Glosic, Guy Lester, Michael Sullivan, Metro Casack, Greg Crane, H. Blaine shop foreman, G. Tennes, M. Devard, Jerry Komar.

The explosion was caused by the upsetting of a metal pot in the cupola, which contained 5,000 pounds of molten metal ready for casting. A span in the pot broke, allowing the liquid iron to spill over the wet sand.

An explosion followed so quickly that none of the 50 workmen in the building had a chance to escape. Streams of the burning metal poured out on the workmen, many of whom were engulfed and severely burned.

Twelve hours after the cupola had exploded, the force of the explosion had blown off the roof of the building.

Buildings in the city shivered as it shaken by an earthquake and people ran from their homes panicking.

When lurid flames shot from the burning car works fully 10,000 persons rushed to the scene.

Through lack of room many of the injured were compelled to lie for an hour on cots in street cars before it was possible to take them to the hospital a mile and a half away. Members of the fire department and citizens also assisted for the men who were totally naked and suffering intensely with the cold.

RESOURCES WASTED

Scientist Warns American People of Grave Danger Ahead

Washington, Oct. 7—After an investigation of the country's natural resources under way for instance Prof. J. Holmes, chief of the technologic bureau of the geological survey has made an official statement warning the American people that the present prodigious waste of these resources must stop at once if the country is to continue to prosper.

Professor Holmes declares that in mining operations of the present nearly one-half of the total coal supply is being lost underground, that simply means power is being wasted day after day and year after year to the extent of millions of horsepower and that forest fires have burned more timber than has been used in the building of homes or in industries.

Professor Holmes says that the waste of coal is appalling. Every possible measure should be adopted to save for reducing this waste to an absolute minimum in order that our fuel reserves may suffice for the future as well as for the present needs of the nation.

"At the present rate of increase in consumption," says Prof. Holmes, "the latter part of the fuel supply of the country will be gone by the end of the present century unless proper steps are taken."

INFERIOR PAPER USED

Contractors for Stamped Envelopes Said to Have Benefited Thereby

Washington, Oct. 7—Postmaster General Meyer has suspended the payment of all money due from his department to the Hartford Manufacturing company of Hartford Conn. and has submitted the matter to the attorney general for such further action as may be deemed proper.

The Hartford Manufacturing company up to Jan. 1 supplied the stamped envelopes and newspaper wrappers sold at postoffices. Chemical analyses of samples have disclosed the fact that the composition of the envelope paper has been below the requirements of the contract and according to the computations of the experts of the postoffice department the company has in the last four years wrongfully benefited to the extent of about $425,000.

One of the manufacturers who supplied paper to the post office had ratted to the post office and furnished different and cheaper material than specified in the contract and that it was made at the instance of the Hartford Manufacturing company.

"I take a very gloomy view of the future," he said. "I cannot see how we can escape hard times. The time has been walked into terrible hysteria over railroads and corporations until the people are likely to do anything so long as a railroad or corporation is hit."

"The hysteria has affected high places," he added, and has resulted in grandstand plays where we might reasonably expect to find calm and deliberate judgment. I can see evidences of trouble ahead despite the fact that railroads just now are busy."

PRESIDENT IN CAMP

No Word Comes From Winters, Who Spent Quiet Sunday in Canebrakes

Stamboul, La., Oct. 7—The president spent Sunday quietly in his camp on Tensus bayou with the intention of beginning his hunt early today. This report is not official but comes close an eye upon the movements of the chief executive as conjecture will permit. At 5 o'clock Assistant Secretary Laitsa, who is located about 10 miles from the camp reported to the press representatives here that he had not received a word from his chief since he landed in camp but he added that he was certain that he had not attended church. Residents who heard him say that he had not attended church confirmed by him that there was no church for him to attend.

There is quite a canvas village where the camp is pitched. It can exist of several tents most of which are occupied as living apartments by the president and his party. The president's tent is a walled structure about 15 feet square and there is a large mess tent and also a cooking tent.

The president has been presented by Manager Shields of the Parker plantations with a handsome horse but will not use him when on the hunt trained ponies are available for this purpose. The hunting force of the party has been reinforced by the addition of Ben Lillie, a professional sportsman who emigrated from this section to Texas in years ago but who had even then made an excellent reputation as to cause him to be sent for and was brought all the way from Texas to be present in case of an emergency. He has in former days hunted all the canebrakes horseback and is said to know every nook and cranny in the country.

Scouts express confidence that some bears will be bagged and they are more anxious on the subject of salmon. They say the woods are full of deer of the Virginia variety but that many of them are dying of the disease known as black tongue.

The party will be augmented today by the addition of Mr. McEachern, of the McEachern family, and Mr. Parker, who will escort the negro bear killer, H. H. Goff, who will bring with him 21 of his own dogs. There will be therefore three professional hunters in the crowd—Collier Lillie and a negro named Brutus Jackson All have their own dogs.

AUTUMN WEATHER.

Prevailed on Sunday and It Attracted Many Out for Long Walks and Drives

Typical autumn weather prevailed yesterday and it had its effect on the crowds of people who thronged the streets all day. Following weeks of unpleasant conditions when it was either too hot or too wet for solid comfort out of doors many took advantage of the opportunity offered and went into the country for long drives or walks. It was just cool enough to be pleasant and comfortable, although it made the summer seem decidedly hot at times.

It made those who were out quick to make stops and walk in a manner conducive to a good circulation of blood. Corpuses thoughts were turned to overcoats, heavy clothing and other more comfortable wearings apparel. It was but natural that the merchants so dependent upon the weather for their trade, should rub up their hands and chuckle gleefully over the happy turn of fate which is bound to send things their way.

These same merchants have been very unfortunate for the past few seasons. The most unfortunate of weather has prevailed for more than a year. Last fall the cool weather was late setting in while this spring almost all here is now abandoned that it would ever get warm.

Even now the winter is apparently bound schedule, but a few more days like yesterday will give them a boost to send things their way.
